

My Environment Matters...

How can landscapes, buildings and landmarks be powerful?

Make a model, paint a picture to share your special place.

My Faith Matters...

Show why it is important to remember- be creative

Remembrance Sunday- 10th November

How can you be inspired by your class saint to make, create or do something to show their importance? What powers do they have?

Other People Matter

How many powerful people can you name?
What makes a person powerful?
Are there different sorts of power – political, social, emotional, humanitarian?
Do people need power?

Could you investigate a powerful person – report back to school on your findings.
Make, create or do something to explore your powerful person.

My Talents and Ideas Matter...

How could you use your talents to share your great ideas about our new topic? Remember - anything goes just so long as it related to our topic and it interests YOU!!

My Homework Matters!

What does it mean to be powerful?

Concepts: Responsibility Democracy Wealth

Please complete 1 project to bring into school on December 12th for our Elton Showcase

My World Matters

Explore the concept of power in the natural world - you could look at natural disasters, eco systems or even animal hierarchies.

Create a presentation on an eco-system and how different species exert power within this system.

If you ruled the world - what would you do? Present your ideas in any way you like - you have the power!

My Learning Matters...

I complete my weekly home learning tasks

My Lifestyle Matters...

How can you empower yourself?

Investigate how physical activity and fitness can empower your by boosting your confidence and improve your health

Set a fitness goal and document your training progress

Or you could create a fitness plan

My Family Matters...

Have you seen the film "The Incredibles?"

Each family character has a special super power! What super power could you and members of your family have? You could create a film trailer sharing their fantastic skills, make a model, design a film poster - anything goes!

Responsibilities?

What responsibilities do you have a home - could you swap them with another member of your family for the day? Let us know on our "Showcase Day" how you got on!
